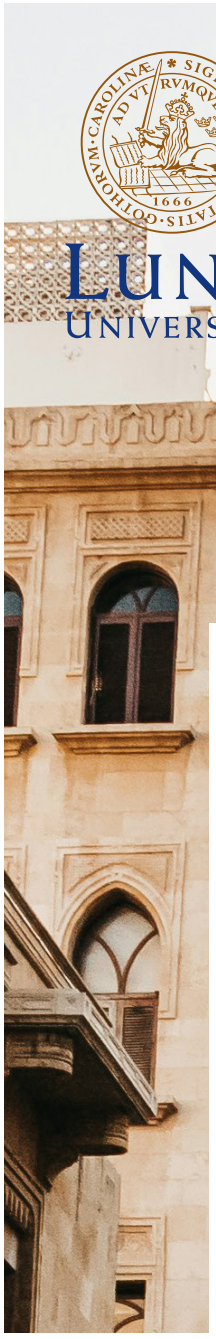
LUND UNIVERSITY

CMES

CENTRE FOR ADVANCED MIDDLE EASTERN STUDIES



CMES Seminar Series Spring 2025

THURSDAYS, 13:15 - 14:30 @ CMES SEMINAR ROOM (FINNGATAN 16).
COFFEE, TEA, AND PASTRIES ARE SERVED AFTER EACH SEMINAR.
ALL WARMLY WELCMOME!

22 January
Is the Syrian Conflict Over? Challenges and Opportunities for the New Administration
Orwa Ajjoub, Malmö University

6 February
Israel's Bank Leumi in Palestine
Hebatalla Taha, Lund University

20 February (N.B. the time and place)
Syria after the Assads
Aron Lund, Swedish Defence Research Agency

6 March (N.B. the time and place)
Hope and Despair – About the Recent Dramatic Development in the Middle East (in Swedish)
Cecilia Uddén, Swedish Broadcasting Radio

20 March
Reimagining History, Rethinking Sudan
Noah Salomon, University of Virginia

27 March
Gaza's Cycle of Destruction and Rebuilding: Understanding the Actors, Dynamics, and Responses
Ghassan Elkahlout, Doha Institute for Graduate Studies

10 April
Iran's Mothers of "Martyrs" Public Dissent in Times of Sorrow
Kristin Soraya Batmanghelichi, University of Oslo

24 April
Shattered Landscapes: An Agonistic Approach to Ethnography in Palestine and Israel
Anne Lene Stein, Lund University

8 May (N.B. the time)
The Rise and Fall of Hezbollah
Rola El-Husseini Dean, Lund University

2 June (N.B. the day)
Research Results from CMES/MECW-Project "Beyond Sacred/Secular Cities"
Torsten Janson, CTR, Jayne Svenungsson, CTR, Mattias Kjärrholm, Architecture and Culture, Barbara Törnquist-Plewa, European Studies

More information about the seminars!

https://www.cmes.lu.se/